Here you go.

Please feel free to edit liberally, this was not my cleanest note taking job ever given how we were all trying to sort things out in real time. I took my notes in the OneNote for the PPG today, so you can access and edit them directly there or send edits back to me and I'll change it up—whichever is fine!

Best,

Jori

Sorry Jori – I was thinking it was either you or Forrest, and I should have known given you’ve been working on the jurisdictional issues. If you have notes from the meeting, would you mind sending them to me before posting?

I believe it was Jori. I didn’t take notes and had to jump off before the call ended so I hope that someone else did.

Hey Forrest – I think you were the one who volunteered for the FIFRA notetaking? If so, any possibility you could send the notes to me when you have them – for review or edit?
